

Sharp

enough to go anywhere. Intelligent enough to stay here.

Stephanie Scherer graduated from Purdue as one of the top two students in her program with degrees in computer science and math. Silicon Valley came calling. Texas and Chicago did, too. But she discovered her best career opportunity with Aprimo—a high-tech firm right here in Indiana. Indiana is home to many innovative knowledge-based and advanced manufacturing companies that offer graduates exciting, challenging and rewarding careers. Plus, graduates get the added bonus of an affordable lifestyle packed with sporting, recreational and cultural activities. Some of our brightest minds are deciding to live in Indiana, which shows how sharp they really are.
